

Melissa Hilleary, Secretary Melissa is a life-long resident of Albuquerque. She graduated from UNM and then continued employment with the institution for 39 years supporting research missions as a program manager and later as COO and CFO in various departments. Melissa has participated in diverse service activities over the years, from Girl Scout leader, to blood donor, her church, the International Balloon Fiesta, and others.