

William Schattschneider

Director

William's 40-year career as a professional contracting officer includes Los Alamos National Laboratory, New Mexico Institute of Mining and Technology, and President of NM Public Procurement Corp.

William holds bachelor's degrees in business administration and public administration from The College of Santa Fe.

Over the years, William has been an active member of United Methodist Church and currently serves as an Elder at the First Presbyterian Church and was responsible for creating a community outreach project supporting the New Mexico Ramp Project. William volunteers at the Belen Area Food Bank supporting those in need of food and is the lead person for New Mexico Ramp project for Valencia County supporting those individuals who have mobility issues.

William's hobbies include wood turning, music, family activities, RVing, white water rafting and golf.

